As a Defense Supplier, you are helping to maintain the security and economic stability of the United States.

If your firm is a DMSA member, you are entitled to state your membership with the DMSA in any of your advertisements, stationary, or any other means of communications. Membership in the DMSA does not constitute that your firm is endorsed by the DMSA, and products may not carry the DMSA seal of approval without prior written consent. Even though the DMSA is not affiliated with the U.S. Department of Defense, or any other Government agency, all information the DMSA provides comes directly from the Defense Logistics Agency.

Your official CAGE number is to be used in any correspondences with the Defense Department and the DMSA, and is only for the company and location noted here:
